

SERBS IN RETREAT BEFORE AUSTRIANS

Berlin Reports Advance Toward South to Repulse Anglo-
French Force.

stant re-enforcements are being hurried up from Saloniki to meet. This threat comes from the Austro-German army under General von Gallwitz, which is marching down the valley toward the Vardar-Cerna line. Having opened the Kosovo plain with the aid of the Austrian army from the north and the Bulgar army from the east, General von Gallwitz has detached a part of his force to assist the Bulgars in the south who have been held fast by the allies. This force, joining with the Bulgars in the valley due north of Prilep will provide not only additional strength for an attack at Krivopal, but a column for the occupation of Monastir, which the Bulgars have refrained from entering.

Reports of the fighting west of the Sittica river, behind which the Serbs retired from Pristina and Mitrovitz, have been meager. The British and French naval brigades which have been with this army since the retreat from Belgrade began known to be safe, although their losses are pronounced to be heavy. The French section has arrived at Monastir and a telegram from Admiral Troubridge, commanding the British, has been received from Mitrovitz under date of November 20. In this the commander said all went well with his brigade. The message was sent out three days before the town was seized by the Austrians.

Blow at Bulgaria Is Indicated in Troop Movements at Saloniki

PARIS, Nov. 25.—Further landings of French and British troops are reported at Saloniki today as a sequel to the settlement of the controversy between the allies and the Athens government concerning the entente powers' campaign in the Balkans.

The belief is general here that the allies will not undertake an extensive sweep through Serbia. At Tskala, 120 miles northwest of Saloniki, on the Nish-Saloniki railroad, it is expected that their march will swing to the northeastward, along the Tskala-Sofia railroad line, with the Bulgarian capital as its objective.

Evacuation of Mitau By Germans Begins Before Slav Advance

LONDON, Nov. 26.—A Petrograd dispatch to the Morning Post says: "The Germans have begun the evacuation of Mitau, their forward base in the Riga-Dvina region, and are preparing to withdraw from the now hopeless task of capturing Riga and the Dvina line."

German had reached the Dvina and whence they had made attempts to cross, has been captured by the Russians.

Russians Promise to Invade Bulgarian Territory in a Week

LONDON, Nov. 25.—The Russian Emperor has addressed a personal telegram to the Serbian premier, M. Pachitch, according to a Saloniki dispatch of Wednesday to the Daily Telegraph, in which he promises the appearance of a week hence in Bulgaria of Russian troops.

New German Law to Make Belgium Pay

Brussels Forced to Contribute
Greater Part of $8,000,000
Monthly Tax.

ROTTERDAM, Nov. 25.—The first year of the collection of monetary levies from the occupied portion of Belgium by the Germans expired on November 10.

A new law continuing the cash requisitions provides no definite period for the collection, merely specifying that monthly payments of $8,000,000 will be forced until further notice.

METHODIST WOMEN WILL HOLD BAZAAR

To Be Conducted by Iowa Avenue
Church Guild First Three Days Next Week.

The Iowa Avenue Methodist Episcopal Church will hold its annual bazaar under the auspices of the Ladies' Guild the first three days of next week. The affair this year will be the first one to be held in the new church.

Formerly the bazaar ran for a week, but this year it is hoped to complete the sales within three days. A general invitation has been extended to members of other churches on Iowa avenue to attend and help make the bazaar a success.

Articles of every description will be placed on sale and a fine opportunity will be offered for the purchase of Christmas presents. There will be a large and elaborate fancy booth, handkerchief booth, doll, apron and candy stands, country and ten-cent stores, a parcel post stand and a booth for home-made articles.

This New Men's Shop Features

Special Suits at $14.50 and Overcoats

Prices range to $30.00. The Suits and Overcoats here at $14.50 are different and better than usual at the price because "featured," which means that vast quantities were contracted for, and that both the makers and this store are to rely upon less than usual profits in order to dispose of more than usual quantities.

The designer of these Palais Royal Clothes is a $10,000-a-year man, and the makers of these garments are not foolish enough to pay him one cent more than he is worth. Expect marvels of style in the models and we guarantee that you won't be disappointed.

SUITS in just as big a variety of distinctive styles as the overcoats, and in even a bigger choice of all-wool materials. The tailoring is fully equal—yes, even superior—to that found in the usual $20 clothes, and the fit will please those most exacting.

OVERCOATS in nearly every model that you can think of—both extreme and conservative, and some new models that you doubtless have not seen. All the plain color wools are used, as well as the fancier plaids, mixtures and check effects.

The New Boys' Shop Features

Special Suits at $4.95 And Overcoats

Just as with the men's clothing, so with the boys' Suits and Overcoats—vast quantities are distributed because the makers and the Palais Royal are content with less profits. Small quantities at big profits—after that good quantities at small profits. It's partly because big profit means decreasing business and small profits mean increasing business. Proof of it: This new Boys' Shop is credited with distributing more suits and overcoats at $4.95 than any two of the older stores.

Do Not Buy Cheap Wash Suits

Mothers with boys of 3 to 8 years will rejoice to hear of Wash Suits that are different and better than usual. Ask to see these New Boys' Shop New Linen Suits, some hand smocked. This is but one of the eleven new styles here. The feature of these new models is in the colorings, in combination with white. They cost $1.75 per Suit—but they make your boy a credit to you.
